About SSC Investigative Consultants

Our firm is fully compliant with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA)

We are recognized as an “investigative body”, as described by PIPEDA

Member of the Council of Private Investigators of Ontario (CPIO) and the Canadian Association of Special Investigation Units (CASIU)

SSC Investigative Consultants was founded by Steve Correia, a former Police Officer with 27 years of surveillance and undercover investigative experience

Utilizing the latest technology and most up to date technical equipment, we exceed industry standards and our client’s expectations.

We provide and participate in the latest training and leading edge investigative techniques

“At SSC Investigative Consultants, we are committed in providing a professional effective service that will exceed your requirements”

Our field personnel includes former police officers with tactical and investigative experience and other senior investigators with decades of experience within the industry
